THE STORY OF DAVID AND SAUL

After David killed the giant, Goliath, King Saul, the first king of Israel, put him in charge of his army. David won several battles and became very popular. Whenever he came home from war, women greeted him by singing and dancing. "Saul has struck down thousands, and David has struck down tens of thousands!" Saul became jealous of David and wanted to kill him because he was afraid David would take over his kingdom.

David could play the harp very well. One day he was playing the harp for Saul and the king hurled a spear at him. David was able to dodge it just in time and it landed in a wall. Saul tried to kill David several more times. Eventually, David ran away and hid in the desert.

Saul organized an army of 3,000 men to hunt for David. He entered the cave where David and his men were hiding. David's men whispered, "This is your chance to kill Saul." David crept toward Saul and cut off a piece of the king's coat, but Saul did not notice. David felt bad for not showing respect to his king. He did not allow his men to attack Saul. David called out to him and told him he could have killed Saul when he had the chance, proving his loyalty.

Saul did not change his mind about David though and kept hunting for him. One night David and his nephew, Abishai, snuck into Saul's camp. Even Abner, Saul's bodyguard, was sleeping. Abishai said, "This is our chance! Let me kill him." David replied, "Jehovah will deal with Saul. Let's just take his spear and his water jug and go."

David climbed a nearby mountain overlooking Saul's camp. He shouted, "Abner, why didn't you protect your king? Where are Saul's jug and spear?" Saul recognized David's voice and said, "You could have killed me, but you did not. I know that you will be the next king of Israel." Saul went back to his palace but everyone in Saul's family hated David. Saul's son, Jonathan, and David became close friends. Saul was eventually defeated by the Philistines, who also killed Jonathan. David took Saul's place as the king of Israel.
